

aXtion Edge for iPhone 16

A rugged protective case with a tempered glass screen protector, ideal for mobile workers in almost any environment.

SKU: CPA320S
MSRP: $69.99

Meet the protective case built to safeguard your iPhone 16 and enhance your everyday experience. Engineered to exceed MIL-STD-810H military-grade standards, it offers reinforced protection, giving you the confidence to take your iPhone anywhere, no matter the conditions.

But this case is more than just tough; it's designed for ultimate convenience. With MagSafe compatibility and dual corner openings for lanyards or straps, you'll have the freedom to carry your iPhone securely, minimizing the chance of accidental drops.

For an even smoother experience, we've included a premium tempered glass screen protector crafted from anti-glare, 9H hardness glass. It's scratch-resistant, fingerprint-resistant, and enhances outdoor viewing by improving light transmission, ensuring your display remains bright and clear. This case isn't just about protection—it's confidence for your iPhone 16.

- MagSafe is stabilized, ensuring precise and quick alignment with a secure attachment
- Reinforced edges and corners, passing military-grade MIL-STD-810H drop tests
- Removable lanyard attachment corner design, catering to various protection and usage scenarios
- 9H glass hardness screen protector, anti-glare glass / waterproof and oleophobic / fingerprint resistant coating / wear and scratch resistant
